

Facts and figures

Board members

Susanne Baumann-Söllner

was appointed to the Executive Board of IAKW-AG on December 1, 2012. The business education graduate, business trustee and financial analyst initially worked as a tax and business consultant and then worked in the Federal Ministry of Finance as a consultant to several ministers and as a department head for tax policy and tax law. Baumann-Söllner is the author of several tax policy publications and winner of the Leopold Kunschak Science Award 2011. Baumann-Söllner, as spokeswoman for the board of directors, is responsible for the congress business, i.e. the areas of marketing, sales, event management as well as the areas of finance & accounting, personnel, IT and security.

Michael Rotter

is part of the board members since 2017. As technical director for renovation and construction projects and as representative of the Republic of Austria in the Major Repairs and Replacements Fund he is responsible for the administration of the Vienna International Center. The Viennese Michael Rotter is a graduate of the Vienna University of Technology and can look back on decades of international experience in a leading position - i.a. as CEO of Siemens Gebäudemanagement & Services Ges.m.b.H. and CEO of Hereschwerke Regeltechnik Ges.m.b.H.

The company:

| | |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| Company name: | IAKW-AG / Internationales Amtssitz- und Konferenzzentrum Wien, Aktiengesellschaft |
| Headquarter: | Austria Center Vienna, Bruno-Kreisky-Platz 1, 1220 Wien |
| Managing directors: | Baumann-Söllner / Michael Rotter |
| Business areas: | Management of the Austria Center Vienna Congress Center / maintenance and administration of the Vienna International Center - seat of the United Nations organizations |
| Opening Austria Center Vienna: | 1987 |
| Capacity: | 22,800 People |
| Number of rooms: | 19 |
| Number of offices and meeting rooms: | 180 |
| Exhibition space: | 26,000 m ² |